

DEPARTMENT OF HISTORY

Achievements

1. Awareness Programs:

The Department of History organizes awareness programs for significant historical and international observances, such as UNO Day and National Unity Day, involving students and faculty in meaningful discussions and activities.

2. Successful Academic Results:

Students from the department consistently perform well academically, achieving high pass percentages in examinations and university-level competitions.

3. Field Trips and Heritage Walks:

The department organizes regular field trips to historical sites, museums, and heritage locations. These excursions provide students with hands-on learning experiences, helping them connect theoretical knowledge with real-world historical contexts.

4. Guest Lectures and Workshops:

The department has successfully hosted guest lectures featuring renowned historians, scholars, and experts, enriching the learning environment and providing students with access to new perspectives.

5. Student Study Projects:

Many students have completed study projects under the guidance of the faculty, some of which have been recognized at inter-collegiate events. These projects cultivate enhance skills and encourage independent historical inquiry.

6. Community Service Projects:

The department engages in Community Service Project programs, educating the public on local history and heritage preservation. Initiatives like heritage awareness campaigns contribute to the local community's appreciation of its historical landmarks.
