VISION

The vision of the History Department is to become a leading center for historical research, scholarship, and education.

MISSION

Our mission is to cultivate a deep understanding and appreciation of the past, by studying and interpreting historical events and their impact on society.

We aim to inspire critical thinking, foster a sense of curiosity, and promote a comprehensive understanding of the complexities of the human experience through the lens of history.

Through our research, teaching, and outreach efforts, we strive to preserve, analyse, and share the richness of our collective past for the benefit of current and future generations.
